

Accelerate Scientific Research: Seamless Content Procurement Directly in DistillerSR

RightFind Enterprise Integration with DistillerSR

Reduce workflow disruptions and accelerate your systematic reviews with seamless content procurement through DistillerSR's evidence management platform.

Transform Your Research Workflow

Are you still toggling among multiple systems to order and manage scientific references for your systematic reviews? DistillerSR and CCC's RightFind Enterprise integration eliminates these inefficiencies with one-stop procurement, allowing your team to:

- Find and purchase content directly within DistillerSR from CCC's proprietary database of over 165 million articles
- Simplify procurement tracking with a familiar shopping cart interface
- Content ordered within DistillerSR will be automatically added to the Digital Library in RightFind if it's covered by the company's CCC or RightsDirect Copyright License
- Streamline literature acquisition with a standard and centralized approach to managing procurement

How It Works

1. Set up once, benefit forever - Establish RightFind credentials, delivery emails, and cost center codes at the account or project level
2. Seamless ordering process - Add references to cart and order with just a few clicks
3. Automatic delivery - Full-text documents are sent to your specified email
4. Simple attachment management - Easily upload and associate full texts with their references in DistillerSR

Why Customers Choose This Integration

"The timely access to and purchase of RightFind content helps researchers reduce the time to process literature and synthesize evidence for their reviews, resulting in lower review costs and faster time to market for medical products and healthcare guidelines." - Peter O'Brien, CEO, DistillerSR Inc.

Real Business Impact

- Time savings - Eliminate the search and quoting process
- Cost efficiency - Reduce administrative overhead and reconciliation work
- Enhanced compliance - Maintain proper documentation for regulatory submissions
- Accelerated insights - Get critical research into the hands of your team faster

Getting Started

To leverage this integration, you'll need:

- A RightFind Enterprise subscription with API credentials
